Wanderlust: An Artist's Perspective

About the Exhibition:

Summer is often associated with time away from the daily grind, excursions near and far, and a time of reflection and rejuvenation. Whether you are planning a staycation or travel to a remote place in a country far away, 10 Fold Projects invites you to share your experiences with the town of Greencastle. Artists are invited to submit up to 5 postcard-sized works to be exhibited. Entrants may also request to receive 5 free blank postcards as a part of their entry fee. Any medium on paper will be accepted, and all submitted works will be exhibited. Help us fill the walls with places near and far. The exhibition will take place between June 1 and August 30, 2024, and will accept entries on a rolling basis throughout the duration. The goal is to create an immersive display of artistic interpretations of places and experiences that celebrate travel, discovery, reflection, and observation.

Who can apply:

Any and all artists living and/or working in the United States are encouraged to apply. A limit of 5 entries per artist will be accepted. Entrants can request up to 5 blank postcards made from watercolor paper to use as a template or blank canvas for their submissions, though all media is accepted and does not have to be watercolor. All submitted work will be displayed!

About the venue:

10 Fold Projects opened its doors on Valentine's Day 2022 to celebrate our creative talent within Indiana and the Midwest. Since opening, 10 Fold Projects has regularly hosted monthly critique nights, exhibitions of regional artists such as Bobbi Meier from Chicago, IL, and local artists living in Greencastle, IN. We also partnered with IU Bloomington to exhibit work created by residents of Putnamville Correctional Facility. We continue to develop programming that brings communities together through art via exhibitions, workshops, and artist residencies.
